SCHEDULE C – MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION

May 30, 2000

There are no material differences in the actual use of proceeds from previous disclosure regarding the intended use of proceeds.

The company has developed proprietary technology for forming concrete foundations using fabric.

The company had engaged the services of Doug Morneau, of Rhino Marketing Inc. to assist with Investor Relations activities. His contract was terminated on April 27th, 2000.

During the first quarter of this year, we have made substantial progress towards our goals of introducing fabric forming into the North American markets. We have:

1. Made substantial progress in rationalizing our existing product lines;
2. Established a marketing, distribution and pricing structure for entry into our markets which consists of:
 - a. Agents
 - b. Distributors
 - c. Dealers
 - d. Contractors
3. Have applied for certification of our footing system
 - a. CCMC in Canada
 - b. BOCA, ICBO and IBC in the USA.
4. Established the following trademarks:
 - a. Fastfoot®
 - b. Fastfabric®
 - c. Fastbag®
5. Established excellent brand identity across North America
 - a. Premier magazine PBF has created a new category in their product listing called: fabric footings.
6. Expanded into commercial applications of our product.
7. Established the following Web Names:
 - a. www.fastfoot.com
 - b. www.fast-wall.com
 - c. www.fabric-forming.com
8. Received PCT Patent approval on our latest footing system.

We are excited about our future, and remain sincerely,

“Richard Fearn”

Richard Fearn, President and CEO
